Clay County, Florida

Marsy's Law
Victims Right to Confidentiality Form
(FL Constitution, Article 1, §16(b), effective 1/8/2019)

Case Number: _____

Every victim is entitled to the following right, beginning at the time of his or her victimization: "The right to prevent disclosure of information or records that could be used to locate or harass the victim or the victim's family, or which could disclose confidential or privileged information of the victim."

I, _____, as a victim, invoke my right to prevent disclosure of information and/or records in the above listed case number that could be used to locate or harass me or my family, or which could disclose my confidential or privileged information.

I understand that this request applies only to records in the possession by the Clay County Sheriff's Office, and will have no impact on records held by the Courts, Clerk of Courts, State Attorney's Office, or other government agencies. It is my responsibility to contact other agencies to invoke my right to prevent the disclosure of my information.

Victim's Right to Confidentiality Forms must be completed and submitted by:

- Contacting the Clay County Sheriff's Office, Records Section, 901 N. Orange Avenue, Green Cove Springs, FL 32043, between the hours of 8am-5pm, Monday through Friday at (904) 213-6090, or
- Emailing the form to records@claysheriff.com.

* Contact the Records Section as soon as possible to prevent release of your information. If a public records request is received before we receive your confidentiality form, we may be required to release your information.*
